13 FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

14 A. ALLEGATIONS RELATING TO PLAINTIFF M.E.

15 22. M.E. was born on May 9, 2007 and has been diagnosed with autism. Larry and 16 Megan Evans are his parents.

17 23. M.E. is African American.

18 24. On or about October, 2012, M.E. was a special education student at MNO Grant
 19 Elementary School in Antioch, California, assigned by the AUSD to the classroom of Special Day
 20 Class teacher defendant ALLEN-CAULBOY. When he was assigned to ALLEN-CAULBOY’s
 21 classroom, M.E. did not speak. He was five years old and weighed approximately 60 pounds.

22 25. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that M.E. and other special
 23 needs students were subjected to ongoing verbal and physical abuse in ALLEN-CAULBOY’s
 24 classroom. While in ALLEN-CAULBOY’s classroom, the teacher struck M.E., repeatedly held 25 him on the ground with her knee, and forcibly gouged his face. M.E. observed other students being 26 struck, pinched and subjected to other forms of physical abuse. M.E. heard the teacher verbally 27 abuse students and refer to them by derogatory names.

28 26. Prior to entering MNO Grant Elementary School, M.E. had attended school for two

1 years in Clark County, Nevada. He was eager to attend and enjoyed school. While in ALLEN-
2 CAULBOY's classroom, M.E.'s behavior underwent very significant adverse changes. He no
3 longer wanted to go to school and came home crying. Because he is nonverbal, M.E. was unable to 4 describe what was happening to him in ALLEN-CAULBOY's classroom. M.E. became fearful of 5 having a shirt placed over his head and began to strenuously resist attempts by his parents to place
6 any garment over his head. M.E. also began acting aggressively towards his parents and siblings.
7 All of these behavioral changes were noticed during his attendance in ALLEN-CAULBOY's class
8 and were not behaviors he had previously exhibited. While M.E. appears to now again enjoy 9 attending class at a new school, the other behaviors described have continued to this day.

10 27. Megan Evans and Larry Evans reported to defendants ALLEN-CAULBOY and 11 MONTGOMERY on numerous occasions the alarming changes in behavior they were observing in 12 M.E. Megan Evans and Larry Evans contacted ALLEN-CAULBOY and MONTGOMERY via 13 telephone on at least nineteen separate occasions yet no employee of the AUSD took any steps to 14 determine the source of the drastic behavior changes in M.E. nor took any steps to stop ALLEN-
15 CAULBOY's abuse of M.E. and other children in the classroom.

16 28. The Evans did not know their child was being abused in ALLEN-CAULBOY's 17 class, but they were very concerned about the impact that continued assignment to the class was 18 having on M.E. Eventually, the Evans became so disturbed by the distress M.E. was manifesting
19 and were so dissatisfied with the lack of response by the District, they held M.E. back from school.

20 29. After the Evans removed M.E. from the school, the AUSD reassigned M.E. to 21 Turner Elementary School in January, 2013.

22 30. On or about March 13, 2013, the Evans were contacted by Detective Meads of the 23 Antioch Police Department regarding a criminal investigation of ALLEN-CAULBOY. Detective
24 Meads described to them the physical abuse that M.E. had endured at the hands of ALLEN-
25 CAULBOY. The Evans contacted MONTGOMERY and WAX, the Director of Special
26 Education. WAX stated that the District had conducted an "investigation" of ALLEN-CAULBOY.
27 He confirmed the information the Evans had received from Detective Meads. WAX stated that 28 ALLEN-CAULBOY had been placed on administrative leave and had resigned from employment

1 with the AUSD.

2 31. Prior to March 13, 2013, the Evans did not suspect and had no reason to suspect,
3 that the AUSD was intentionally failing to provide information concerning their son's abuse and 4 injuries. Nor did they know that ALLEN-CAULBOY's classroom was an unhealthy educational 5 setting for M.E. and a hostile environment based on his disability.

6 32. Larry Evans and Megan Evans are informed and believe and thereon allege that 7 ALLEN-CAULBOY physically abused and injured their son on various occasions and furthermore 8 psychologically and emotionally abused their son. Larry Evans and Megan Evans are further
9 informed and believe and thereon allege that ALLEN-CAULBOY's classroom was a hostile
10 environment for M.E. based on his disability.

11 33. The unreasonable, excessive and unwarranted battery on M.E. caused him and will
12 continue to cause him physical injury, pain and emotional distress. AUSD employees compounded
13 the injury by failing to promptly report it to M.E.'s parents or to responsible officials.

14 34. ALLEN-CAULBOY's classroom was an unhealthy educational setting for M.E. and 15 a hostile environment based on his disability.

16 B. ALLEGATIONS RELATING TO PLAINTIFF A.S.

17 35. A.S. was born on January 23, 2006 and has been diagnosed with autism. Teresa
18 Green is his mother.

19 36. A.S. is African American.

20 37. On or about September, 2012, A.S. was a special education student at MNO Grant
21 Elementary School in Antioch, California, assigned by the AUSD to the classroom of Special Day
22 Class of defendant ALLEN-CAULBOY.

23 38. During the period A.S. was a student in ALLEN-CAULBOY's class, A.S. exhibited
24 signs of anxiety, was sleeping poorly and waking at night, all of which were behavioral changes.
25 A.S. also appeared to be anxious about going to school as he indicated on various occasions that he 26 did not want to go to school. On a number of occasions, A.S. remarked "Bad Miss Caulboy".
27 Teresa Green did not understand that one or more of the adults in the classroom were abusing A.S.

28 39. A.S. and other special needs students were subjected to ongoing verbal and physical

1 abuse in ALLEN-CAULBOY'S classroom including, but not limited to the following incidents:

2 40. On or about January 15, 2013, A.S. indicated he did not want to go to school and 3 when they arrived to school he indicated to his mother that the teacher's aide "Tasha" had hurt his 4 hand.

5 41. On or about January 17, 2013, Ms. Green received a telephone call and was 6 informed by an employee of AUSD that her son A.S. had been physically injured in the classroom
7 by his teacher defendant ALLEN-CAULBOY. Ms. Green was told that ALLEN-CAULBOY
8 pinched A.S.'s nipple in an attempt to "get him to comply" with her request. Ms. Green was 9 further informed that ALLEN-CAULBOY often yelled at A.S. using derogatory terms including 10 "retard" and used inappropriate physical force against A.S.

11 42. As a result of receiving this information, Ms. Green made a report to the Antioch
12 Police Department in January, 2013. Ms. Green's report to police resulted in a police investigation 13 into how he was injured and who was responsible for his injuries.

14 43. A.S. has very limited ability to communicate. Based on the information received by 15 Teresa Green in January, 2013, she now believes that ALLEN-CAULBOY's classroom was an 16 unhealthy educational setting for A.S. and a hostile environment based on his disability.

17 44. Subsequently, Ms. Green spoke with WAX, the Director of Special Education for 18 the AUSD. Ms. Green described to WAX the physical and emotional abuse her son was 19 experiencing in ALLEN-CAULBOY's classroom and she advised him of her concerns relating to 20 A.S.'s safety. WAX advised Ms. Green that the AUSD was "aware" of other incidents involving 21 ALLEN-CAULBOY but that he could not discuss the details of other complaints due to an ongoing 22 "investigation".

23 45. On February 15, 2013, Teresa Green received a letter from MNO Grant Elementary
24 Principal defendant GREEN. The letter advised parents that Special Day Class teacher defendant
25 ALLEN-CAULBOY had "resigned her teaching position with the AUSD" and would not be
26 returning to MNO Grant Elementary School.

27 46. Teresa Green is informed and believes and thereon alleges that ALLEN-CAULBOY 28 physically abused and injured her son on various occasions and furthermore psychologically and

1 emotionally abused her son. Teresa Green is further informed and believes and thereon alleges that 2 ALLEN-CAULBOY's classroom was a hostile environment for A.S. based on his disability.

3 47. Prior to January 15, 2013, Teresa Green did not suspect and had no reason to 4 suspect that the AUSD was intentionally failing to provide information concerning her son's
5 injuries.

6 48. The unreasonable, excessive and unwarranted battery on A.S. caused him and will
7 continue to cause him physical injury, pain and emotional distress. AUSD employees compounded
8 the injury by failing to promptly report it to A.S.'s parent or to responsible officials.

9 C. ALLEGATIONS RELATING TO PLAINTIFF L.C.

10 49. L.C. was born on March 30, 2007 and has been diagnosed with autism. Heather
11 Carranza is her mother.

12 50. L.C. is African American.

13 51. During the 2012/2013 school year, L.C. was a special education student at MNO
14 Grant Elementary School in Antioch, California, assigned by the AUSD to the classroom of 15 Special Day Class teacher defendant ALLEN-CAULBOY.

16 52. L.C. and other special needs students were subjected to ongoing verbal and physical
17 abuse in ALLEN-CAULBOY's classroom including, but not limited to the following incidents:

18 53. On or about December, 2012, Heather Carranza noticed physical injuries on L.C.'s
19 body and asked her daughter how she had been injured. L.C. told her mother that her teacher, 20 defendant ALLEN-CAULBOY, had injured her.

21 54. Heather Carranza is informed and believes and thereon alleges that ALLEN-
22 CAULBOY physically abused and injured her daughter on various occasions and furthermore 23 psychologically and emotionally abused her daughter. Heather Carranza is further informed and 24 believes and thereon alleges that ALLEN-CAULBOY's classroom was a hostile environment for 25 L.C. based on her disability.

26 55. As a result of receiving this information, Heather Carranza made an immediate 27 telephone report to the principal of MNO Grant Elementary School, defendant GREEN in 28 December, 2012 leaving a detailed voicemail message which complained of ALLEN-CAULBOY's

1 conduct and advising GREEN of the abuse occurring in this classroom.

2 56. In January, 2013, Heather Carranza observed multiple bruises on L.C.'s body. L.C.
3 told her mother that ALLEN-CAULBOY had squeezed her elbow which left a visible bruise and 4 had pushed her down.

5 57. Heather Carranza made a further telephone report to GREEN in January, 2013 again
6 leaving a voicemail message reporting incidents in which ALLEN-CAULBOY injured L.C..

7 58. When GREEN did not return her call, Heather Carranza made additional calls to 8 him in an attempt to discuss this serious matter with him.

9 59. When she finally reached GREEN by telephone, GREEN advised Heather Carranza
10 to put her complaint in writing, which she did by sending him an email describing her concerns.

11 60. GREEN and other mandated reporters employed by the AUSD failed to report the 12 suspected child abuse as required by the Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act. On information
13 and belief, employees of the AUSD instead caused an investigation of Ms. Carranza by the Child
14 and Family Services Bureau despite their knowledge that ALLEN-CAULBOY was in fact the 15 person physically abusing L.C. and other children in the class.

16 61. Based on the information received by Ms. Carranza in December, 2012, and 17 January, 2013, she believes that ALLEN-CAULBOY's classroom was an unhealthy educational 18 setting for L.C. and a hostile environment based on her disability.

19 62. On February 15, 2013, Ms. Carranza received a letter from MNO Grant Elementary
20 Principal defendant GREEN. The letter advised parents that Special Day Class teacher defendant
21 ALLEN-CAULBOY had "resigned her teaching position with the AUSD" and would not be
22 returning to MNO Grant Elementary School.

23 63. Prior to December, 2012, Heather Carranza did not suspect and had no reason to 24 suspect that the AUSD was intentionally failing to provide information concerning her daughter's 25 injuries.

26 64. The unreasonable, excessive and unwarranted battery on L.C. caused her and will 27 continue to cause her physical injury, pain and emotional distress. AUSD employees compounded
28 the injury by failing to promptly report it to A.S.'s parent or to responsible officials.

D. ALLEGATIONS RELATING TO PLAINTIFF M.M.

65. M.M. was born on August 26, 2006 and has been diagnosed with autism. Michele Smith is his mother.

66. M.M. is African American.

67. On or about September, 2012, M.M. was a special education student at MNO Grant Elementary School in Antioch, California, assigned by the AUSD to the classroom of Special Day Class teacher ALLEN-CAULBOY.

68. M.M. and other special needs students were subjected to ongoing verbal and physical abuse in ALLEN-CAULBOY's classroom including, but not limited to the following incidents:

69. On or about November 28, 2012, M.M. indicated to his mother that ALLEN-CAULBOY had struck him in the head and face a number of times and also taunted him verbally and called him demeaning names and racial epithets.

70. Ms. Smith is informed and believes and thereon alleges that ALLEN-CAULBOY physically abused and injured her son on various occasions and furthermore psychologically and emotionally abused her son. Ms. Smith is further informed and believes and alleges that ALLEN-CAULBOY's classroom was a hostile environment for M.M. based on his disability and his race.

71. As a result of receiving this information, Ms. Smith made reports to GREEN, principal of MNO Grant Elementary School, WAX, Director of Special Education for AUSD, MONTGOMERY, Coordinator of Special Education for AUSD, Child Protective Services, and the Antioch Police Department. Ms. Smith's report to police resulted in a police investigation into how he was injured and who was responsible for his injuries.

72. Ms. Smith has requested the results of the police investigation and she has been advised that the police investigation included contacting employees of the AUSD, including employees of MNO Grant Elementary School.

73. In early December, 2012, Ms. Smith spoke with WAX, the Director of Special Education for AUSD. Ms. Smith described to WAX the physical and emotional abuse her son was experiencing in ALLEN-CAULBOY's classroom and she advised him of her concerns relating to

1 M.M.'s safety. WAX advised Ms. Smith that the district was "aware" of other incidents involving
2 ALLEN-CAULBOY but that he could not discuss the details of other complaints due to an ongoing
3 "investigation". WAX attempted to dissuade Ms. Smith from contacting the police or the media
4 concerning the mistreatment of her son.

5 74. No employee of the AUSD has ever provided Ms. Smith with the results of the 6 District's investigation.

7 75. Prior to November, 28, 2012, Ms. Smith did not suspect and had no reason to 8 suspect that AUSD was intentionally failing to provide information concerning her son's injuries or 9 the hostile and unhealthy education environment in his classroom.

10 76. The unreasonable, excessive and unwarranted battery on M.M. caused him and will
11 continue to cause him physical injury, pain and emotional distress. AUSD employees compounded
12 the injury by failing to promptly report it to M.M.'s parents or to responsible officials.

13 E. ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL PLAINTIFFS

14 77. ALLEN-CAULBOY treated African-American students more harshly than white
15 students. In addition, she directed racial epithets toward African-American students. Defendants
16 GREEN, WAX, ROGENSKI and MONTGOMERY and other unknown district and school
17 officials were aware of ALLEN-CAULBOY's propensity to treat African-American students
18 more harshly and her use of racial epithets in the classroom. They were deliberately indifferent to 19 risk that plaintiffs and other African-American students would be the object of racial harassment
20 in ALLEN-CAULBOY's classroom.

21 78. On information and belief, Defendants GREEN, WAX, ROGENSKI and 22 MONTGOMERY and other unknown district and school officials, received reports from several 23 sources that ALLEN-CAULBOY was physically and verbally abusing children in her classroom.
24 Defendants failed to act on the reports that they received and attempted to prevent parents from 25 reporting suspicions of child abuse to police agencies. As such, they were deliberately indifferent
26 to the likelihood that students in ALLEN-CAULBOY's classroom would be subjected to violations 27 of their constitutional rights.

28 79. On information and belief, all of the children in ALLEN-CAULBOY's classroom

1 were subjected to a hostile educational environment based on their disability. They were subjected 2 to - and observed other children being subjected to - demeaning and insulting language, hostile and
3 aggressive interactions with teachers and aides, and physical abuse including but not limited to 4 hitting, gouging, pinching and restraining children. The physical abuse was severe enough to cause
5 bruising and other injuries. The verbal abuse caused children intense fear and other psychological 6 damage which continue to the present.

7 80. On information and belief, GREEN, WAX, ROGENSKI, MONTGOMERY and 8 other unknown district and school officials, were aware of the incidents and of the potential for 9 continuing harm to the children in ALLEN-CAULBOY's classroom, but failed to promptly inform 10 the parents of the children. As a result, Plaintiffs Larry Evans, Megan Evans, Teresa Green, 11 Heather Carranza and Michele Smith were deprived of the ability to comfort their children or to 12 provide appropriate counseling, medical and/or psychological care. The failure to advise the 13 parents promptly gave rise to the severe emotional distress in that they suffered a loss of trust in 14 school officials and felt betrayed that they did not learn what their children had experienced at the 15 time of the injuries when they could have responded immediately with appropriate parental support 16 and care.

17 81. As a further proximate result of Defendants' action as alleged herein, minor 18 Plaintiffs M.E., A.S. and L.C. have suffered physical injuries and pain and emotional distress and 19 suffering. Plaintiffs Larry Evans, Megan Evans, Teresa Green, Heather Carranza and Michele
20 Smith have suffered emotional distress and suffering.

21 82. As a further proximate result of Defendants' actions as alleged herein, Plaintiffs 22 Larry Evans, Megan Evans, Teresa Green, Heather Carranza and Michele Smith have incurred and 23 will continue to incur medical expenses.

24 83. Defendants ALLEN-CAULBOY, GREEN, WAX, ROGENSKI and 25 MONTGOMERY's conduct was malicious and/or in reckless disregard of the plaintiffs' rights.

26 84. Plaintiffs have filed claims with AUSD pursuant to Government Code §§ 910, et 27 seq. AUSD has not responded to the claims. In the event they are denied plaintiffs will seek leave 28 to court to amend the complaint to allege additional causes of action.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(Violation of Constitutional Rights, 42 U.S.C. § 1983; All Plaintiffs vs. Defendants GREEN, WAX, ROGENSKI and MONTGOMERY)

85. Plaintiffs incorporate and reallege by reference the foregoing paragraphs 1 through 84 inclusive, as if they were fully set forth herein.

86. Defendant ALLEN-CAULBOY violated minor Plaintiffs M.E., A.S., L.C. and M.M.'s rights under the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution by actions, including but not limited to utilizing unjustified and unreasonable force against minor Plaintiffs.

87. Defendant ALLEN-CAULBOY violated minor Plaintiffs M.E., A.S., L.C. and M.M.'s rights under the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution by actions, including but not limited to, depriving Plaintiffs of equal protection under the law on the basis of race.

88. Defendant GREEN, WAX, ROGENSKI and MONTGOMERY violated minor Plaintiffs M.E., A.S., L.C. and M.M.'s rights under the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution by actions, including but not limited to, acting with deliberate indifference to the risk of harm to plaintiffs from ALLEN-CAULBOY.

89. Defendants ALLEN-CAULBOY, GREEN, WAX, ROGENSKI and MONTGOMERY violated Plaintiffs Larry Evans, Megan Evans, Teresa Green, Heather Carranza, Michele Smith and M.E., A.S., L.C. and M.M.'s rights under the Due Process Clause to the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution by actions, including but not limited to:

a. Intentionally interfering with the parent child relationship by concealing information regarding the physical and emotional trauma inflicted on M.E., A.S., L.C. and M.M. by ALLEN-CAULBOY.

b. Intentionally interfering with Larry Evans, Megan Evans, Teresa Green, Heather Carranza, Michele Smith and M.E., A.S., L.C. and M.M.'s right to provide and receive nurture, support and comfort regarding a highly traumatic event.

90. As a proximate result of the violations alleged in paragraphs 85 - 89, Plaintiffs have suffered damages as heretofore alleged.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(Discrimination in Violation of the Americans With Disabilities Act; Plaintiffs M.E., A.S., L.C. and M.M. vs. the DISTRICT)

91. Plaintiffs M.E., A.S., L.C. and M.M. incorporate and reallege by reference the foregoing paragraphs 1 through 90, inclusive, as if they were fully set forth herein.

92. Effective January 26, 1992, Plaintiffs M.E., A.S., L.C. and M.M. were entitled to the protections of the "Public Services" provision of Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990.
